

August 22, 2018

Solidarity comes in many forms. At Canadian Council striking and locked-out workers and members recently on picket lines brought delegates to tears as Unifor resolved to fight back against scabs and union busting employers.

WHAT'S HOT

How a canoe changed everything at Canadian Council.

TAKE ACTION

Join us Friday in Vaughn, Ontario to rally in solidarity with Local 6000 members on strike in Montreal.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Watch our victories from the past year - from paid domestic violence leave, to fair trade and better working conditions.

READ MORE

National President addresses 1,300+ delegates at Canadian Council, reminding activists that political action is the core of Unifor.

READ MORE

Quebec Director reminds delegates how far Unifor has come in establishing itself as a force to be reckoned with.

READ MORE

What you missed if you didn't make it to Canadian Council: Updates on organizing, equity, union building and strikes and lock-outs.

READ MORE

Unifor vows to intensify campaign to end 600 day lock-out of Local 597 members in Gander N.L.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Nova Scotia health care workers get pay increase in the form of shift and weekend premiums.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Canadian Council delegates vote overwhelmingly to reaffirm disaffiliation from the Canadian Labour Congress.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

The world of work is changing rapidly – watch this video to see how new technologies are shaping the future of work.

READ MORE

