

February 8, 2018

With many new hotel members, Unifor will continue to organize and work with local leaders and members to negotiate strong new collective agreements. Outrage over treatment of Mexican workers by Canadian company and paltry 15 cent wage increase in Nova Scotia.

WHAT'S HOT

Nearly 800 hotel workers join Unifor in just 10 days, making the choice

TAKE ACTION

Do you have questions about why Unifor left the CLC? Check out the top five questions and for a stronger future.

READ MORE

answers, and be sure to share!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Toronto passes a motion to declare January 29 a Day of Remembrance and Action on Islamophobia.

READ MORE

Retail workers in Vaughan, Ontario fight back against new holiday shopping rules.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia government raises minimum wage by a measly 15 cents.

READ MORE

Third worker is killed, related to the strike against Canadian-owned Torex Gold in Mexico.

READ MORE

Unifor supports the federal NDP's new approach to Indigenous relations with Reconciliation portfolio.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Members at Bell Technical Services in Ontario and Quebec reach a tentative agreement.

READ MORE

Driverless trucks aren't solution at Suncor, an experienced, skilled workforce is needed.

READ MORE

New agreement at TWD in Longueuil, including wage increases and flexible scheduling.

READ MORE

Members at Windsor Star vote overwhelmingly to go on strike.

READ MORE

New tentative agreement reached at Oakville Transit, avoiding a labour dispute.

READ MORE

Members at Penske logistics provider ratify an agreement, including a signing bonus.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Auto workers have been unfairly singled out in Ontario's Employment Standards Act – sign the petition to make it right!

READ MORE

Support Aboriginal and Workers of Colour in positions of leadership. Check out the upcoming Unifor Education programs.

READ MORE