

In a united fashion with other unions, community members and all of you, the union is putting on a bold defense for workers' rights, strikes and to advancing an equity agenda. Plus there's a whole lot more that happened this week, keep reading to find out how Unifor is making news.

 WHAT'S HOT

Locked-out workers at Local 597 in Gander, Newfoundland win an

 TAKE ACTION

To ensure a spot at Unifor's Roundtable on Racism and Islamophobia you need to important employment insurance fight.

READ MORE

register for this pre-Canadian Council event.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

OPSEU and Unifor presidents advocate with members for striking health care workers at Port Arthur and Owen Sound clinics.

READ MORE

Don't miss the National Recreation conference! Learn how to set up a committee, run a recreation event and much more.

READ MORE

With the new Trans-Pacific trade deal Canada may have traded away the potential for stronger, enforceable labour rights.

READ MORE

Scrapping Ontario's comprehensive sex ed leaves children at risk. Here's how you can help do the right thing for kids.

READ MORE

Members and staff attended a week-long human rights training to take action on Unifor's important equity agenda.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

The 12-week strike at an Ontario salt mine ends as Local 16-O members ratify new agreement with Compass Minerals.

READ MORE

Eastern pattern reached with Resolute Forest Products, serving as a model contract for the sawmill industry in Quebec.

READ MORE

After 20 days of negotiation and the employer refusing to budge, 105 members at Oldcastle in Quebec go on strike.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia Council of Health Care Unions Bargaining Committee preps for mediation arbitration hearing on July 30.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Cheer up, jump up, and play in style for Unifor at this year's Toronto Caribbean Carnival parade.

READ MORE

THIS IS A
HARASSMENT-FREE ZONE

Everyone deserves respect at work.

Ordering resources just got easier. Here's the revamped order form for Unifor's Anti-Harassment Poster and Buttons.

READ MORE