

June 14, 2018

Want a glimpse of what Unifor has accomplished in just the last week? Read this week's issue to learn about bargaining victories, community organizing, and what's next after the Ontario election.

WHAT'S HOT

Read our statement, download the new poster, and pass along these social media images for National Indigenous Peoples

TAKE ACTION

To celebrate Labour Day Unifor will march in style. Locals can now order a jersey; hurry orders are due June 28.

Day.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

With a conservative win in Ontario, Unifor's defense of workers' rights and decent work continues with urgency.

READ MORE

Health and safety matters! Casino Rama was fined $50,000 after two members were injured slipping in the parking lot.

READ MORE

Welcome the 75 new members from the Les Crustacés de Gaspé processing plant in Grande-Rivière, Québec.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes expansion of Maple Leaf Foods in Port Perry, creating 40 new jobs and more union made products.

READ MORE

A labour delegation rallied in Brampton, Ontario to call on the Peel Region council to reject holiday shopping plans.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Members at Irving Shipbuilding in Halifax rejected a tentative agreement and served a 48-hour strike notice instead.

READ MORE

New contract with wage increases, improved vision coverage, and more for 264 auto parts members at Dana Canada Corp.

READ MORE

Local 2889 members at CMC Electronics in Saint-Laurent ended their strike and signed a strong three-year contract.

READ MORE

Jazz Aviation LP members in Crew Scheduling made gains with their new five-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

The CPTPP is a bad trade agreement for workers, said Jerry Dias in this letter to the Minister of International Trade.

READ MORE

Show your union pride for LGBTQ members at these community Pride events happening across the country.

READ MORE

