

June 6, 2019

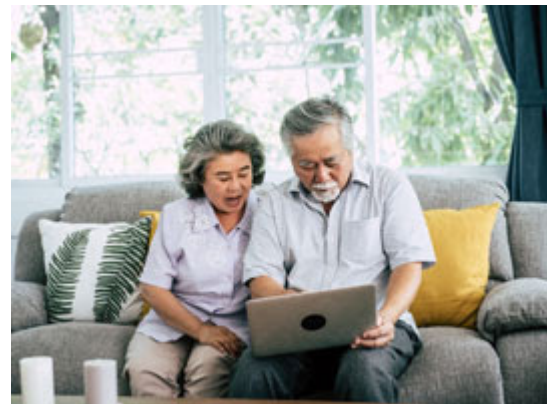

Unifor prepares to battle a wage cap on one million Ontario workers, local meetings kick off to determine member's federal election priorities, and Prairie Regional Council delegates use lessons from the past to build a stronger future.

WHAT'S HOT

Friends and comrades gathered for Atlantic

TAKE ACTION

Last chance to participate in our

Regional Council in beautiful St. John's, where members heard about the challenges facing every worker in the region. Check out the video:

READ MORE

member survey on retirement security! Survey closes next week.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is mobilizing to fight Doug Ford's wage cap on Ontario's public sector limiting workers to an annual one per cent increase.

READ MORE

A century after the historic Winnipeg General Strike Unifor members bring Prairie Regional Council

Unifor forestry workers raise awareness of sector issues with hundreds of mayors and city councillors at the Federation of Canadian energy to the city.

READ MORE

Municipalities Conference.

READ MORE

Unifor kicks off its Local Union Task Force Federal Election Tour to hear directly from members on key issues and bring worker's issues to the campaign forefront.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for immediate action on the 231 calls for justice included in the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls Inquiry final report.

READ MORE

Employee Family Assistance Program conference delegates focus on eliminating stigmas surrounding mental health and addiction issues.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Winnipeg Free Press workers ratify new collective agreement with no concessions and a no-layoff clause.

READ MORE

Postmedia members vote overwhelmingly in support of pension merger with CAAT.

READ MORE

Hitachi members secure wage increases and improve benefits in new three-year deal.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Tandus Solidarity Rally

Local 4612
Needs
Your Support

On Friday June 7, show your support for more than 200 Local 4612 members abandoned by the owners of Tandus Flooring in Truro, NS after more than 50 years of loyalty. Join the solidarity rally and BBQ. RSVP here:

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Celebrate Labour Day in style!
Unifor garments available to order now.

READ MORE

Unifor