

unILINK

October 10, 2019

Nearly 5,000 members at Saskatchewan Crown Corporations and a Crown Agency take job action to fight proposed two-year wage freeze. Unifor launches new campaign to show how Doug Ford's cuts affect Ontario members in their cities, hospitals and homes. Plus it's time to vote for the Canada you want as advance polls are set to open across the country.

Watch what happens when striking Unifor members decide to shut down a power plant in Saskatchewan.

READ MORE

Vote this weekend! All across Canada, polling stations are open from Friday October 11 to Monday October 14, 9:00 a.m.-9:00 p.m.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Thousands of striking and locked out Sask Crown workers tell Premier Moe “What’s good enough for politicians should be good enough for workers.”

READ MORE

Unifor launches new stopfordcuts.ca campaign to show how Doug Ford's policies will negatively affect workers and their families in every region of Ontario.

READ MORE

Unifor preparing submission to Nova Scotia government in support of Northern Pulp's modern wastewater treatment facility proposal.

READ MORE

Health care workers at Hogarth Riverview manor rally after contract negotiations come to a standstill.

READ MORE

Tensions with China leads to temporary closure of Thurso Fortress pulp plant.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Coast Mountain Bus Company members conduct strike vote after company fails to address key contract issues during months of negotiations.

READ MORE

Members at Dynamex Couriers avert strike as new tentative agreement is secured.

READ MORE

Tough negotiations result in wage increases and pension enhancements for Dearborn Ford members.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1136 reaches tentative agreement with the Unifor Dental Centre in Oshawa.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch this video to see how is delivering life saving supplies to Hurricane Dorian survivors in the Bahamas with the support of the Unifor Social Justice Fund.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

The Pulse provides national, provincial and regional information on the work of Unifor health care members. Check out the latest edition of The Pulse!

READ MORE

Unifor