

August 27, 2020

Nearly 1,500 grocery workers at Dominion are on the picket line as Newfoundland Unifor Local 597 members fight for #FairPayForever. Hard fought for changes to Employment Insurance are finally a reality. Plus, all of the video streams from the #UniforSummit20 are available to share on Facebook.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members on the #UniforSummit20 racial justice panel discussed how labour activists can contribute to the fight for systemic change in Canada.

WATCH VIDEO

Show your support for striking members of Unifor Local 597 by using this profile frame on Facebook.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

On August 22, unfair pay and precarious work forced 1,400 Unifor members to strike at Newfoundland's Dominion stores.

READ MORE

Unifor's fight for improved Employment Insurance hits home for hospitality and gaming workers.

Lana Payne closed the Summer Summit with a speech that emphasized rebuilding our social safety net.

READ MORE

With three provincial leadership changes looming, Atlantic Director Linda MacNeil outlines the challenges ahead for workers in her Summer Summit address.

READ MORE

Closing panel of Summer Summit issues a bold endorsement of Unifor's plan to #BuildBackBetter.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

Unifor aviation members continue to lobby the federal Ministers of Health and Transportation for a safe reopening of borders that puts the health and safety of workers and the travelling public first.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on government to take action to protect Canadian journalism jobs after new report predicts closures of radio and TV stations due to COVID crisis.

READ MORE

Unifor Ontario school bus driver members call for standardized COVID-19 health and safety measures to protect drivers, students, their families, and their communities.

READ MORE

Unifor members on strike at Dominion in Newfoundland have offered to help donate perishable items from the stores to local foodbanks.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Take a look at the mobilizing highlights in another incredible year for Unifor.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

The CERB is evolving. Get the latest update on the program from Unifor's COVID-19 information hub.

READ MORE