

October 15, 2020

Unifor reaches tentative agreement with Chrysler Automobiles, and members are mobilizing in Saskatchewan and BC to make sure they are heard in their provincial elections. Striking Dominion workers picket secondary sites and Unifor urges the use of rapid testing to replace quarantines for international travellers. And more!

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

“Andrew Wilkinson is dangerously out of touch”: Watch Unifor’s new ad for the B.C. election.

WATCH VIDEO

Make a voting plan. Unifor members in Saskatchewan and British Columbia can use an online tool to make their plan for voting in the ongoing provincial elections.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor reaches tentative agreement for 9,000 members at Fiat Chrysler Automobiles securing assembly production in Brampton and Windsor.

READ MORE

With the introduction of the Racial Justice Advocate program, Unifor’s historic deal with Ford sets a new standard in the fight against racism.

Striking Dominion workers took action as they formed a human solidarity chain at a secondary picket location outside St.

READ MORE

Journalists at PostMedia's flagship newspaper, the National Post, voted to join Unifor.

READ MORE

John's No Frills.

READ MORE

Health Canada has approved rapid testing for COVID-19, now Unifor is urging the federal and provincial governments to deploy the tests for air travellers to replace lengthy quarantines.

READ MORE

Wear your Unifor Black Live Matters t-shirts to build a stronger movement for racial justice.

READ MORE

Ahead of the 91st Persons Day in Canada, Unifor highlights the need for activism to ensure equality for all women.

READ MORE

Unifor activists helped feed those who feed us over the long weekend, providing culturally appropriate Thanksgiving meals for migrant workers in Southwestern Ontario.

READ MORE

Read Jerry Dias's blog: Scott Moe killed somebody. I stood up for the rights of working people. I spent more time in jail.

READ MORE

Ontario Court of Appeal hears arguments in a precedent-setting pay equity case in nursing homes.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch Jerry Dias speak at a joint federal and Ontario government news conference last week as both levels of government announce a "landmark" $590-million investment in zero emission manufacturing jobs at Ford Canada.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

World Mental Health Day was this week, and comes as we face the stresses of the pandemic. Read the Unifor Mental Health Resources for tips and strategies to support yourself and others.

WATCH VIDEO

