

October 22, 2020

The move to green vehicle production in Canada continued with a new collective agreement ratified by FCA members, striking Dominion workers in Newfoundland step up their actions, Unifor sponsors a new investigative journalism project, 2020 Unifor scholarships awarded, Jerry Dias writes about green vehicles, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Product's Choice

- ✗ Cancelled the $2/hour pandemic premium.
- ✗ Classify 80% of workers as part-time.
- ✗ Pay 75% of workers less than $15/hour.

Customer's Choice

- ✓ Support a living wage for grocery workers.
- ✓ Demand creation of decent full-time jobs.
- ✓ Refuse to shop at Dominion until a fair deal is reached.

Sean Weston
Chairman, Loblaw Companies Ltd.
Family net worth: $4.3 billion USD

Dominion workers take secondary picket action at the Loblaw distribution centre in St. John's.

WATCH VIDEO

Sign the petition for striking Dominion workers in Newfoundland and Labrador.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members at Fiat Chrysler voted 78 per cent to ratify a new three-year collective agreement that includes significant investment, job security and economic gains.

READ MORE

Striking Dominion workers rallied today as they face court action by Loblaw Companies Limited.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor is sponsoring a unique project to promote investigative journalism and help train the next generation of investigative reporters.

READ MORE

Congratulations to all the recipients of Unifor's 2020 scholarships – 28 prizes of $2,000 each across Canada to help make education more accessible.

READ MORE

Green vehicles are the way of the future and will have a positive impact across the Canadian economy, which is why governments are supporting it and we are emphasizing it in Detroit Three talks, Jerry Dias writes in the Toronto Star.

READ MORE

Unifor Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle was in Saskatchewan this week to join rank-and-file activists on the provincial election campaign trail.

READ MORE

Unifor members ratify contract with Windsor-Essex Catholic District

Workers at Premier Implementation Solutions gain

School Board that brings new hiring and stronger language on working conditions.

READ MORE

significant wage increase and new protections in first collective agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch Unifor National President Jerry Dias announces a new collective agreement with Fiat Chrysler Automotive.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Canada Needs a Plan for Aviation Shareable.

DOWNLOAD HERE