

October 14, 2021

Unifor confronts journalist harassment, long term care announcement welcomed, bargaining access to Legal Services, read Unifor's submission on just transition, sign up for new courses, celebrate Continuing Care Assistant Week in Nova Scotia, and check out the Rise Up Rally video.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

October 11-15 is Continuing Care Assistant (CCA) Week in Nova Scotia. We want to thank our CCA members for their incredible strength and care.

READ MORE

Three new online courses are now available for all members. These courses are short modules that members can access on their own at anytime, anywhere and at no cost.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is putting together a plan of action to address harassment of journalists, which is often targeted at women and workers of colour.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the Ontario government's announcement to provide an additional $270 million for long-term

The Legal Services Plan provides legal services at reasonable rates for units that have chosen to bargain this crucial care homes.

READ MORE

benefit.

READ MORE

With the new mobile friendly website fully launched, Unifor has discontinued the mobile app.

READ MORE

Unifor made its formal submission to the federal government's consultations on the Just Transition Act this month.

READ MORE

Bell's unwarranted position on Maintenance of Activities delays opening of Atlantic and Clerical negotiations.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch as Katha Fortier and long-term care activists came together to send a clear message demand

RESOURCES

UNIFOR RESEARCH DEPARTMENT
LABOUR MARKET INSIGHTS
A monthly review of labour market indicators
September 2021

September's job numbers are out and Unifor's Labour Market Insights report shows another 157,100 jobs were added, unemployment fell

Premier Doug Ford fix the crisis in Ontario's long-term care system.

WATCH VIDEO

to 6.9% and the participation recovered to pre-pandemic levels at 65.5%.

READ MORE