

August 25, 2022

Hear our racial justice stories, show solidarity on Orange T-Shirt Day, Unifor's new Auto Hub website, Bell Clerical and Durham Transit ratify new deals, demanding minimum wage in Manitoba, letter to Premier Ford, watch Lana Payne's first speech as president and updated sector profiles.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Check out Unifor's new Auto Hub Website and read our new interactive Auto Policy, complete with new graphics, recommendations, resources, news, videos and more.

READ MORE

Show your solidarity on Orange T-Shirt Day with artwork commissioned by Haisla artist Nathan Wilson. Order your shirts now to be prepared for September 30.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is taking the fight for racial justice a step further – by providing members with contract language for racial justice advocates. And we're just getting started. Here's our story.

READ MORE

Unifor's Bell Clerical and Associated Employees bargaining unit ratified a

Wage gains and new positions are highlights of a new collective agreement ratified Sunday four-year deal with Bell Canada on Thurs., Aug. 18, 2022.

READ MORE

After Manitoba Premier Heather Stefanson announced a slow increase to the minimum wage, Unifor renewed our demand that the Government of Manitoba increase minimum wage to $15 per hour by the end of 2022.

READ MORE

by Unifor Local 222 members working at Durham Regional Transit (DRT).

READ MORE

Unifor's new National President, Lana Payne, sends a message to Ontario Premier Doug Ford about the province's health care crisis and what he needs to do to step up.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 114 members at First Canada in Vernon and the Shuswap Communities, in B.C. have voted overwhelmingly to strike if a fair collective agreement cannot be negotiated in the coming weeks.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Watch Lana Payne deliver her first speech as National President of Unifor.

WATCH VIDEO

Download the updated sector profiles to read a quick, but detailed, overview of the many industries that Unifor members work in.

READ MORE