

July 7, 2022

Workers at HBC Logistics make big gains, help stop airport contract flipping, Bell Clerical and Atlantic workers come together, bad faith complaint filed at Sunwing, strong strike mandate at VIA, making a wish come true, Unifor files for judicial review of insulting health arbitration award, Pivot members kept in Dominican Republic plus website help for locals.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Bell Clerical and Atlantic workers are united! Both groups are in Toronto this week to talk wages, teleworking and job security with the company, as the clerical group engages in their second and final week of conciliation.

READ MORE

Contract flipping is a way for employers to unjustly cut staff, reduce or freeze wages and limit employees' rights. Sign our petition and share our shareables and tell the Canadian government to stop contract flipping at Canadian airports.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

E-commerce warehouse workers at HBC Logistics have voted overwhelmingly at 80% to accept a new tentative agreement, ending a nine-day strike action. Check out the gains they made.

READ MORE

Sunwing pilots filed a complaint at the Canada Industrial Relations Board Monday, July 4, 2022, alleging their employer bargained in bad

Unifor Council 4000 and Local 100 VIA Rail members issue a strong faith during a recent round of negotiations because the employer already knew the company was being sold to WestJet.

READ MORE

Unifor's Family Education Centre was able to make a little boy's wish come true over the Canada Day weekend, providing him and his family with a beachfront cottage vacation in partnership with the Make a Wish Foundation.

READ MORE

strike mandate ahead of July 11 strike deadline.

READ MORE

Unifor files for judicial review of an insulting arbitration award for long-term care workers in 11 care homes in Ontario. It's time long-term care workers got more respect, more protection and more pay.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Since April 5, Unifor member Bal Krishna Dubey, a part-time electrical mechanic at Pivot Airlines and a member of Unifor Local 2002, along with four other crew members have

RESOURCES

Unifor is relaunching our Local Union website program! Read more about the service and see if this solution will work for your local been held in the Dominican Republic, after discovering and reporting suspected contraband on their plane.

READ MORE

union.

READ MORE