

July 28, 2022

First tentative agreements negotiated for new members at Great Canadian Gaming Corporation and WestJet. Workers at two Ontario casino locations take strike action.

Transport Canada and Competition Bureau asked to consider Canadian jobs in WestJet acquisition of Sunwing. Unifor members execute emergency procedures to safely evacuate passengers and crew from burning ferry. Plus, a sneak peak at the upcoming Unifor Constitutional Convention.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch new members from Local 1090 at Shorelines Casino Peterborough and Shorelines Casino Thousand Islands discuss the bargaining experience and the coordinated gaming sector table.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor's Warehouse Workers Unite campaign has launched a survey to enable warehouse, distribution and logistics workers to voice their concerns. The survey period closes soon so act now.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor Local 1090 gaming members at Pickering Casino Resort and Casino Ajax are on strike to demand fair wages and benefits. The 850 members work in table games, slots, cashiering, food and beverage, kitchen and culinary, guest services, housekeeping, and maintenance.

READ MORE

Nearly 800 newly organized WestJet workers in Calgary and Vancouver have Unifor members saved lives with their quick action and brave management of a reached a tentative first collective agreement, avoiding any service interruption in advance of Tuesday's strike deadline.

READ MORE

The bargaining committees for Unifor members at six Great Canadian Gaming Corporation (GCGC) casinos in Ontario have signed a tentative agreement.

READ MORE

fire in the engine room of the Nova Scotia to PEI ferry. All 183 passengers, their pets, and the 22 crew were evacuated safely.

READ MORE

Transport Canada and the Competition Bureau must consider that WestJet's acquisition of Sunwing may have a deep and negative effect on Canadian jobs, says Unifor, after filing a public interest submission to Transport Canada on Friday, July 22, 2022.

READ MORE

The sudden closure of Sing Tao, Canada's largest Chinese-language newspaper, is an unconscionable blow to readers and to Canada's cultural fabric says Unifor Local 87-M, which represents 43 members at Sing Tao.

READ MORE

The countdown is on to Unifor's fourth Constitutional Convention, taking place in Toronto August 8-12. See what's planned for delegates.

READ MORE

Unifor filed an Unfair Labour Practice complaint with the Canada Industrial Relations Board (CIRB) and alerted the federal government to Bell's repeated attempts to undermine workers' bargaining power with requests for scab labour.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

As you enjoy the outdoors this summer, make sure to protect yourself from ticks that carry Lyme disease.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

The World Health Organization just declared Monkeypox a "Global Health Emergency" - meaning a coordinated international response is needed. Read our fact sheet to learn more about the virus.

READ MORE