

November 10, 2022

A big win for unions as Premier Doug Ford repeals Bill 28, defeating the Notwithstanding Clause and ending job action from CUPE. Unifor members marched in the streets across Ontario to fight for workers' right to strike. Lana Payne and auto leadership tour GM Oshawa in lead up to D3 bargaining. FFAW asks the federal government for more search and rescue resources in Labrador. Unifor Media Director Randy Kitt tells Parliamentary hearing tech giants must pay fair share for local news content. Plus: Unifor files for conciliation with Canadian Pacific.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

“Workers made it clear that they will not tolerate the weaponizing of the Notwithstanding Clause to strip people of their Charter rights,” said Unifor National President Lana Payne after Premier Doug Ford announced the repeal of Bill 28.

WATCH VIDEO

Dec. 6 is the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women. Order your posters and buttons now to show support.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor joined a media conference with CUPE education workers following a commitment by Premier Ford to fully repeal Bill 28 and return to the bargaining table with education workers.

READ MORE

Unifor's Auto and IPS Councils wrote letters to Premier Ford to demand that he rescind anti-worker Notwithstanding legislation.

READ MORE

Unifor National President Lana Payne and National Secretary-Treasurer Len Poirier visited the General Motors Oshawa plant to meet local union leadership and speak to members on the shop floor ahead of the first anniversary marking the return of truck production on Nov. 8, 2022 and Detroit Three negotiations scheduled for 2023.

READ MORE

The federal fall economic statement shows promise, but stops short of additional measures needed to ensure economic prosperity and stability for Canada's workers and their families.

READ MORE

On the heels of the Newfoundland and Labrador Fish Harvesting Safety Association Safety Symposium, the FFAW's Inshore Council is reiterating the need for increased search and rescue resources in Labrador.

READ MORE

Unifor Media Director Randy Kitt tells Parliamentary committee that big tech companies need to pay their fair share to save local news.

READ MORE

Local 101R files for conciliation with Canadian Pacific after reaching a bargaining impasse.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor stood in solidarity with CUPE's education workers in Ontario. Check out the photos from actions across the province.

RESOURCES

While 98% of all contract negotiations are settled without a strike, Unifor's Strike and Defence Department is here to provide resources, support and guidance for Unifor bargaining committees who are forced to take strike action or walk a picket line during a lockout when a mutually acceptable agreement cannot be reached at the bargaining table.

READ MORE

READ MORE