

September 8, 2022

Unifor members across the country join together to celebrate Labour Day. GDI Services cleaners escalate action as company locks out workers. Unifor signs the Reproductive Justice Coalition Manifesto. Unifor welcomes new members at Cabot Manufacturing. 'Quiet Quitting' is not enough says National President Lana Payne. Last chance to register for the EI/ CPP Conference.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members marched in solidarity with thousands of union members and activists at the Toronto & York Region District Labour Council Labour Day parade.

WATCH VIDEO

Locked out cleaners need your help. Sign the petition to support GDI Services workers at Durham College.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor celebrated worker empowerment as members across the country gathered to mark Labour Day.

READ MORE

GDI Services members at Local 222 escalate picket action after employer served illegal layoff notices and locked out workers.

READ MORE

In an era of record inflation GDI Services cleaners are earning just $16.05 an hour. Hear from the Unit Chair and Unifor National Secretary-Treasurer Len Poirier from the picket line.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor becomes a signatory to the Reproductive Justice Manifesto demanding improved access to reproductive health care across BC and Canada and enforcement of the Canada Health Act.

READ MORE

Vancouver, Toronto, Windsor and Halifax were just a few of the locations where Unifor took the streets on Labour Day. View the photo gallery.

READ MORE

Workers at Cabot Manufacturing in Nova Scotia ratified their first collective agreement, delivering long-overdue wage

Unifor members at Bell Aliant are headed into the final days of increases and improvements to health and safety in the workplace.

READ MORE

conciliation on Tuesday September 6, 2022.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

'Quiet Quitting' is not enough. Now is the time for workers to unite to build power and fight for economic and social justice, says Unifor National President Lana Payne.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Deadline Extended! Register this week for the EI/CPP Conference in Port Elgin and learn more about supporting members in these times of transition.

READ MORE