

September 15, 2022

Members from across the country unite at Unifor's 2022 Women's Conference to celebrate sisterhood, strength and solidarity. GDI Services labour dispute ends as workers' win significant wage and benefit gains. Local 2458 achieves pay equity victory for women workers at the University of Windsor. Unifor joins charter challenge court battle against Ontario's wage restricting Bill 124. Nova Scotia acute care Health Support workers ratify new agreement following conciliation. Plus more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

The first woman National President of Unifor opened the 2022 Women's Conference at the Family Education Centre. Watch the video of her address to delegates now!.

WATCH VIDEO

Take action to fix EI. Temporary measures are in place to help workers, but those measures are scheduled to run out on September 24. Add your name to extend the benefits until permanent fixes are made.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The 2022 Women's Conference was the largest conference ever held at the Unifor Family Education Centre. Under a theme of Feminism at Work: Women are Unstoppable, delegates left inspired to tackle politics, and fight for racial justice and more.

READ MORE

Members at GDI Services win major gains in new collective agreement, bringing a labour dispute at Durham College to an end. The workers will receive a 33% total financial increase over lifetime of agreement with an immediate $2.00 per hour wage hike.

READ MORE

Three women working at the University of Windsor – all Unifor members – will receive back pay in the range of $25,000 to $35,000 each from their employer, after the union filed a complaint with the province's Pay Equity Review Services.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for additional measures to support Canada's workers as the federal government moves to address the affordability crisis.

READ MORE

After two years of wage suppression, workers are being heard in court. Follow along for updates on the Bill 124 Charter Challenge in the Ontario Superior Court.

READ MORE

Health Support workers in Nova Scotia acute care ratified a new agreement that brings all workers above $20 per hour following conciliation with the Nova Scotia Health Authority and the IWK Health Centre.

READ MORE

Following an inquiry into the 2015 workplace death of Unifor Local 598 member Richard Pigeau, a jury adopted several safety recommendations from Unifor directed at mining equipment manufacturers and government.

READ MORE

Unifor members at Bell Aliant in four Atlantic provinces vote to accept a new 4-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

Wage increases and shift premiums are highlights of a new collective agreement ratified September 14 by Unifor members at Purdy's Chocolatier.

READ MORE

School bus driver members in Owen Sound, Kincardine and Port Elgin, Ontario deliver overwhelming strike mandate.

READ MORE

Bargaining for a new collective agreement between Unifor and CP opened this week in Calgary.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 609 members at the Canadian Light Source have applied for mediation after the employer refused to address concerns about inflation eroding their wages.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

The pandemic changed the lives of workers and their families, especially those on the frontline. Watch some of their stories.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

UNIFOR RESEARCH DEPARTMENT

LABOUR MARKET INSIGHTS

A monthly review of labour market indicators
August 2022

Did you know that the national unemployment rate jumped sharply higher in August, from 4.9% to 5.4%? Read Unifor's labour market insights to see what this means.

READ MORE