

August 31, 2023

Unifor selects Ford Motor Company as the Detroit Three target company to set the pattern for Canada's auto industry. After 192 days, Unifor Windsor Salt members end their strike to ratify a new five-year agreement. Thousands of striking Metro members vote on new tentative agreement. Unifor criticizes Ontario Education Minister's attack on trans kids in schools. Plus: Watch how Unifor rallied to support local communities in the new Atlantic Regional Council video.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor National President Lana Payne announce Ford as the target company at this week's Auto Talks 2023 news conference.

Labour Day is not only a time to relax and enjoy with family and friends, but also an opportunity to stand in solidarity with our fellow workers and show our collective strength. Find an event near you.

IN THE NEWS

Unifor has selected Ford Motor Company as the target automaker to set the pattern agreement in the union's negotiations with the Detroit Three.

The 192-day strike at Windsor Salt has come to an end after members of Unifor Local 240 and 1959 ratified a new five-year contract.

READ MORE

More than 3,700 Metro members will vote on a new tentative agreement after picketing 27 Greater Toronto Area stores for a month and recent escalated action at the grocery giant's warehouse distribution centres.

READ MORE

Unifor members at Ford Motor Company, General Motors and Stellantis have delivered overwhelming strike mandates, authorizing their bargaining committees to take job action, if needed, to achieve fair collective agreements with the Detroit Three (D3).

READ MORE

Unifor is appalled as Ontario Education Minister Lecce joins growing right-wing attack on trans kids in schools.

READ MORE

Unifor members received training this week to prepare for the union's largest ever member-to-member campaign in Manitoba.

VIEW PHOTOS

Take action to help Unifor Local 114 members get a fair contract at the Victoria Clipper ferry service in British Columbia.

READ MORE

Read Unifor's letter to the Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Official Languages about creating emergency EI measures for workers impacted by widespread fires, including migrant workers.

READ MORE

Major wage increases and more manageable workloads are key features of a new three-year contract with the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch how Unifor delegates rallied to support 2SLGBTQIA+ students, raised funds for the Humanity Project, and committed to defending reproductive justice at the Atlantic Regional Council this summer.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Donate to support Canadian Red Cross fire relief efforts in Northwest Territories and British Columbia.

READ MORE