

December 14, 2023

Unifor is among three major hospital unions holding the Ontario government to account for the ongoing health care crisis and moves towards privatization. Ontario Auditor General report confirms the impact of short-staffing crisis on nursing homes and ERs. Unifor's energy locals ratify agreement to set pattern bargaining for National Energy Program.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Aviation members will gather at Pearson airport in Toronto on December 18 to launch Unifor's Air Transportation Workers' Charter of Rights. The new campaign calls for immediate action by government, airports and airlines to ease the turbulence in Canada's air transportation industry.

READ MORE

Unifor members, health care workers and community activists rally at Queen's Park demanding Doug Ford stop hospital service closures.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor joins with OCHU/CUPE and SEIU Healthcare, representing more than 70,000 hospital workers in Ontario, to demand the Ford government come to the bargaining table with the funding required negotiate a deal to save public hospitals.

READ MORE

Representatives from Unifor's energy local unions have ratified the tentative agreement that establishes the pattern for more than 7,500 members of the union's National Energy Program.

READ MORE

Ontario Auditor General Report confirms the health care system crisis in the province's long-term care homes and emergency rooms.

READ MORE

Unifor would like to express our deepest condolences and sorrow over the loss of life in Gaza. We stand in solidarity with the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate, and we condemn the mass civilian casualties.

Read our letter.

READ MORE

Unifor demands equal rights and protections for all workers, regardless of status. Read our 2023 International Migrants Day statement.

READ MORE

This is the 75th year since the Universal Declaration of Human Rights came to life. Given the state of the world today, these rights and the leadership and inspiration behind them have never been more needed. Read Unifor's statement on International Human Rights Day.

READ MORE

Across the country, local unions find special ways to mark December 6 and recommit to ending violence against women. See some of the ways Unifor members marked the National Day for Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 302 members at Marshall Gowland Manor in Sarnia, Ont., overwhelmingly vote in favour of their new collective agreement.

READ MORE

PWTransit bus services will be completely withdrawn in Comox Valley and Campbell River, B.C., as of Fri., Dec. 15 at 4:30 a.m., after contract negotiations failed between the company and members of Unifor Local 114.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

The doors opened this week at the job Action Centre in Espanola, Ont. this week that will help assist almost 500 pulp and papers workers laid off by Domtar to transition to new employment. See the photo album.

READ MORE

Find out about employment growth, wage changes, regional economic shifts, and latest trends in Canada's labour market in this month's labour market insights.

READ MORE