

April 11, 2024

Unifor applies to represent workers at two Amazon facilities, the campaign against Bell Canada escalates, energy and chemical sector workers meet in Calgary, workers receive pre-apprenticeship training in Oshawa, a funding win for transit in Durham, and members in Saskatchewan begin making plans for the 2024 provincial election.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor is holding BCE Directors accountable with the unveiling of the "Meet the Board" component of the 'Shame on Bell' campaign.

READ MORE

Contact the Bell Board of Directors and let them know workers deserve better.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor files applications to represent workers at two Amazon fulfilment centres.

READ MORE

Unifor members from across B.C. participated in meetings with MLAs and cabinet ministers overseeing key economic sectors.

READ MORE

Unifor members in the energy and chemical sector met in Calgary this week to update the pattern bargaining process.

READ MORE

EQUAL PAY NOW

ÉGALITÉ SALARIALE MAINTENANT

April 16 is Equal Pay Day. It is a stark reminder of the ongoing fight for gender equality in the workplace.

READ MORE

The Education Department delivered a pre-apprenticeship training program for members of Unifor Local 222 working at the GM Oshawa facility.

READ MORE

Fifty workers at MDA's new global headquarters and space robotics centre launched strike action following the company's refusal to negotiate.

READ MORE

Unifor mourns the deaths of humanitarian heroes in Gaza, calling for justice and safety for all aid workers.

READ MORE

Unifor campaign for Durham Region transportation funding succeeds.

READ MORE

Unifor members in Saskatchewan are preparing for the member-to-member campaign for the 2024 provincial election.

VIEW PHOTOS

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Agropur Dairy Cooperative production plant in Nova Scotia have signed a new five-year contract.

READ MORE

Rather than focusing on reaching a settlement with Unifor, GreenShield Canada has chosen a publicity campaign that is further inflaming the five-week-old dispute.

READ MORE

Overwhelming 82% of CNTL members vote in favour of strike action should an agreement not be reached with the employer.

READ MORE