

February 29, 2024

Unifor members on strike at Autoport refuse to be intimidated by the employer, watch Ontario Regional Council highlights in the recap video, Unifor's 2024 International Womens Day statement is out, members pay tribute to the journalists killed covering the carnage in Gaza, Lana Payne tours the Alstom facility, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

ORC 2023 was remarkable. Watch our recap video to see key moments from this powerful gathering of members at Ontario Reginal Council.

Unifor calls for increased funding of Durham Region Transit to provide the transportation service needed to keep the region vibrant and productive.

IN THE NEWS

Autoport members stand strong as the company attempts to use scab labour to bust Unifor Local 100 strike.

Unifor celebrates the 2024 International Women's Day theme 'Invest in Women: Accelerate progress.'

READ MORE

Unifor has signed onto an open letter condemning Alberta's anti-trans policies.

READ MORE

Unifor joined the International Federation of Journalists to honour the 100+ journalists and media workers killed since Oct. 7 covering the war in Gaza.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor activists working in the B.C. forestry sector met this week to discuss improving health and safety in the workplace.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor celebrated the Black excellence, unity, and victories that have shaped today's labour movement and society.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne joined Unifor members at work for a tour of the Alstom facilities in Thunder Bay.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor Local 444 members at Sarnia Public Library and the Judith and Norman Alix Art Gallery unanimously ratify agreement.

READ MORE

Wage increases, improved layoff protections part of new Euramax deal with Unifor members.

READ MORE

Wage increases and pension gains are highlights of a new three-year contract ratified this week by members of Unifor Local 914.

READ MORE

Auto workers at THK Rhythm Automotive ratify new three-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 222 members at Android Industries vote 93% in favour of new collective agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor members from across the Lower Mainland in B.C. gathered at the regional union hall to celebrate the lunar new year.

RESOURCES

Order your poster now for the National Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination on March 21.

VIEW PHOTOS

READ MORE