

November 21, 2024

Unifor-FFAW members vow to remain defiant to protect jobs at Triennial Convention, Unifor supports striking postal workers, World Toilet Day, spa workers make history in B.C., Nova Scotia members mobilize for a worker-friendly government, CN bargaining developments, Extencicare contracts ratified, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unifor stands in solidarity with the Canadian Union of Postal Workers in its

 TAKE ACTION

Activists around the world are flocking to the social media app Bluesky, a trusted strike action at Canada Post.

READ MORE

alternative to Elon Musk's X(Twitter).

Follow Unifor and Unifor leadership posts.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The FFAW-Unifor Triennial Convention in Gander, N.L. saw Dwan Street sworn in as the union's first woman president. See photos and read about the many issues discussed.

READ MORE

Clerical telecommunications workers meet to strategize about campaigns and bargaining.

READ MORE

Unifor stands with the global movement for access to safe and inclusive washroom facilities, particularly for women and 2SLGBTQI+ members.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 4276 welcomed nearly forty new members following a union drive at the Willow Stream Spa.

READ MORE

Members are out volunteering and mobilizing voters ahead of next week's election in Nova Scotia.

READ MORE

Unifor members at CN Rail are holding strike votes to secure a fair contract.

READ MORE

The cold weather is here. Read the Unifor guide to protecting yourself and fellow workers from cold stress and related dangers in the workplace.

READ MORE

Unifor members helped spread holiday cheer during Saturday's Santa Claus parade in Winnipeg.

VIEW PHOTOS

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Extendicare ratify ten collective agreements, securing better wages, benefits, and inclusive workplace provisions.

READ MORE