UNIFOR UNILINK

April 17, 2025

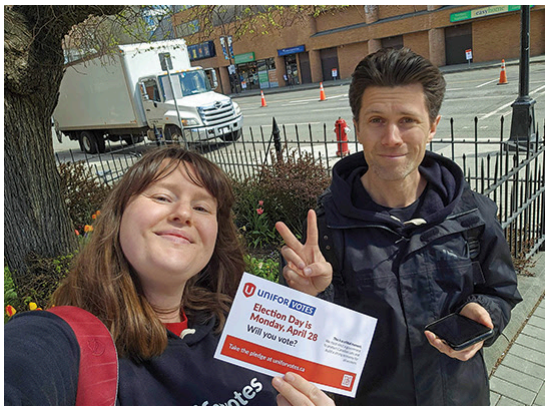
Unifor members rallied in Victoria in support of Local 114 and 333-BC members on strike, urgent action needed in Espanola to secure forestry jobs, energy and chemicals sector members meet in pre-bargaining conference, members in the Western and Atlantic Regions meet in separate town halls to discuss the fightback against U.S. tariffs, Local 2027 members welcome Samia Hashi, and new members at Oakham House sign first contract.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor members on strike describe their fight for clean washrooms and reasonable breaks at Transdev.

WATCH VIDEO



Advanced polls for the federal election are open April 18–21 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members rallied in Victoria this week to support members of Locals 114 and 333-BC, on strike since February 8.

READ MORE

Unifor repeats its call for urgent action from all levels of government on a forestry industrial strategy following the proposed sale of Domtar's Espanola mill.

READ MORE

Unifor members gathered in St. John's last week to coordinate strategies ahead of upcoming national energy and chemicals sector negotiations.

READ MORE

U.S. President Donald Trump's tariffs were in the spotlight during Unifor's Western Regional town hall on April 16.

READ MORE

Members in Atlantic Canada joined this week's virtual town hall to learn more about how U.S. tariffs may impact their industries.

READ MORE

Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi toured Hiram Walker & Sons in Windsor, where Local 2027 members craft Canada's most iconic spirits.

VIEW PHOTOS

Newly unionized food service workers at Oakham House ratified their first collective agreement as members of Unifor Local 591-G.

READ MORE

Although Honda jobs in Canada appear safe for now, Unifor urges vigilance amid the tariff trade war.

READ MORE