

unILINK

May 22, 2025

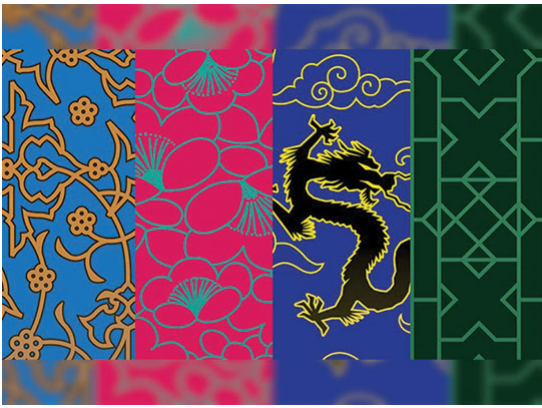

Unifor outlines a plan to take action against companies taking Canadian jobs south, Samia Hashi tours Porter Airlines, Asian Heritage Month, Selig Group is attempting to move equipment out of Canada, Road Transportation Council and Telco Council statements on tariffs, the 2025 Ontario budget, and Labour Market Insights.

Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi toured Porter Airlines to learn more about the important work done by Unifor members.

VIEW PHOTOS

Join the Asian Heritage Month webinar on May 27.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor calls on the federal government to punish corporations that move jobs out of Canada in response to U.S. trade measures.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Selig Group's decision to relocate equipment from Bradford, Ontario to a Chicago plant.

READ MORE

In the Road Transportation Council statement on tariffs, see how transit and logistics systems can support Made-in-Canada production.

READ MORE

For the telecommunications sector, the trade war is a call to action to build a resilient industry less vulnerable to foreign economic threats.

READ MORE

The Ontario budget delivers tariff-mitigation measures and economic safeguards but falls short of holding corporations to account.

READ MORE

Unifor members at Durham Region Transit voted 98% for strike action if an agreement cannot be reached by midnight on June 6.

READ MORE

April's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE