UNIFOR UNILINK

April 24, 2025

Unifor members to gather in Windsor for mass rally against the tariffs, Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi tours Atlantic Packaging, registration is open for the Red Dress Day webinar, April 28 Day of Mourning, Bud Jimmerfield Award nominations, Aerospace Council statement on U.S. tariffs, health care and social services tour comes to Ontario, Unifor takes aim at Bell executive bonuses, Cowichan Valley transit strike rally video, Ontario Town Hall review, Unifor members hit the doorsteps with Samia Hashi, Unifor calls out HBC for violating the collective agreement, auto tariff developments, and Asian Heritage Month.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Unifor Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi toured Atlantic Packaging, where Unifor Local 333 members produce and distribute packaging materials.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor invites members to participate in an online discussion on Red Dress Day about supporting MMIWG2s families.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Join Unifor's Rally to Protect Canadian Jobs this Saturday, either in person in Windsor or online, as we stand together against unfair U.S. tariffs and defend Canada's economic sovereignty.

READ MORE

April 28 is the Day of Mourning. Read and share Unifor's statement on how we honour those lost to workplace injury and illness through action.

READ MORE

The deadline to nominate a health and safety activist for the Bud Jimmerfield Award is next Friday, May 2. Submit yours today!

READ MORE

Unifor's Aerospace Council urges a strong government response to U.S. tariffs that protects aerospace workers and delivers a national industrial strategy.

READ MORE

Unifor’s Health Care and Social Services Tour is uniting frontline workers to address key jobsite concerns.

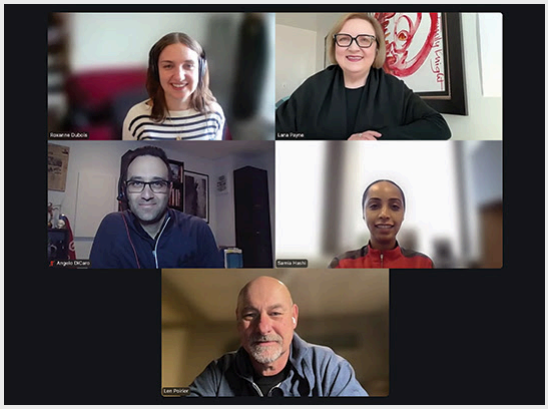
READ MORE

Unifor members at Bell are organizing to vote against multi-million executive bonuses at the company's upcoming AGM.

READ MORE

Striking Transdev workers rallied outside BC Transit's headquarters in Victoria on April 15 fighting for respect and dignity.

WATCH VIDEO



At the Unifor Ontario Townhall meeting, National President Lana Payne and Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi updated members on the tariff fight.

READ MORE

Unifor members from across Ontario are leading a campaign to inform voters about what's at stake for workers this election.

READ MORE

Trump’s escalating auto tariff threats are a direct attack on Canadian jobs and the entire North American industry.

READ MORE

Unifor celebrates Asian Heritage Month by honouring the contributions of Asian workers whose leadership, resilience, and activism have strengthened our union and country.

READ MORE

Hudson’s Bay Company is using the liquidation process to violate collective agreements.

READ MORE

Unifor members have rejected Transdev’s latest offer, continuing a strike now in its 11th week.

READ MORE