

uniLINK

July 10, 2025

Hot labour summer is heating up! Unifor rallies for CN Tower workers, backs strikes at Cascade, Toromont, and Sheraton Vancouver Guildford, supports a secondary picket for Best Western Plus Waterfront hotel strikers, and stands with Transdev members who rejected mediator recommendations. Unifor slams Trump's copper tariff threat and pushes to shield social services from potential trade war fallout.

Paccar job losses highlight need to buy local. Plus, Unifor Labour Day t-shirts available to order now.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor National President Lana Payne and Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi join members of Local 4271 at a rally outside the CN Tower after more than 250 workers were locked out by Canada Lands Company.

WATCH VIDEO

Show your union pride! Unifor Labour Day t-shirts are now available to order for Locals taking part in parades or events.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor brought a powerful show of solidarity to the base of the CN Tower, rallying support for Local 4271 members who've been unjustly locked out.

READ MORE

Members at the Sheraton Vancouver Guildford hotel are on strike for fair wages. Represented by Unifor Local 3000, they're standing strong and demanding a fair deal.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 114 members at Cascade Aerospace are on strike in Abbotsford, demanding fair pay that reflects their key role in maintaining Canada's critical military aircraft.

READ MORE

Striking Unifor Local 195 members from Windsor's Best Western Plus brought their fight for fairness to the Elm Hurst Inn, demanding shared owner Shmuel Farhi pay workers a living wage.

READ MORE

Unifor Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle joined the Sheraton Vancouver Guildford hotel picket line to support members fighting for respect and fair conditions.

VIEW PHOTOS

Trump's 50% copper tariff threat—if applied to Canada—is a reckless attack on workers. Read Unifor's statement.

READ MORE

Unifor strongly condemns the major layoffs announced by Paccar, which will impact approximately 175 union members.

READ MORE

Unifor's Health, Education and Social Services members urge stronger social supports to prepare for potential economic impacts of a trade war.

READ MORE

After more than 21 weeks on strike, Unifor transit members at Transdev have rejected the provincial mediator's recommendations to end the dispute.

READ MORE