BELL CRAFT

Craft and Services employees

Brothers and Sisters,

This week we met the Company again at the bargaining table. We began talks on our non-monetary demands. They responded negatively to many of our proposals but were more open-minded on others. There still are several demands that have not yet been discussed with the Company.

Please find attached two documents:

The Union's Proposals
The Employer's Proposals

Negotiations continue next week in Ottawa.

The collective agreement expires on November 30th 2016.

We will keep you informed of any developments.
